DUTCH CREEK ESTATES

“The Perfect Setting for Fine Country Homes”

Why compromise? Dutch Creek Estates means that you don't have to settle for a place to live when Dutch Creek Estates is exactly what you want. McHenry County's finest country estates are located right in Johnsburg.

Dutch Creek Estates, spread out across 475 acres of rolling hills, has 291 large home sites. The secluded development features sparkling ponds, bubbling creeks, splashing waterfalls, majestic old-growth oaks and hickories.

The distinctive character of the entire subdivision provides each lot with a variety of features including walkout basements, panoramic views of the Dutch Creek Valley, southern exposures, secluded woods, and tranquil ponds. Each lot has been meticulously designed to coordinate with its neighbors and provide privacy as well as a sense of community.

Construction of homes in Dutch Creek Estates is governed by a set of architectural guidelines, which insures the quality, integrity, and value of the community. The guidelines set standards for house size, construction materials, architectural interest, and landscaping. Each house plan is carefully considered for its individuality and contribution to the overall quality of the subdivision. The result is one of the highest valued communities in McHenry County. Yard Setbacks: 20'-Side, 30'- Rear and 55'- Front.

Dutch Creek Estates was created with uncompromising attention to landscaping detail. The entrance, parks and public parkways were professionally designed to enhance the natural beauty of the site. The award winning landscaping includes the addition of nearly six hundred oak and maples trees, terraced flag stone gardens, and undulating berms covered with pines and flowering trees. The creeks and waterfall are lined with boulders, willow trees, and swaying natural grasses.

We're positive you won't find a more comfortable country setting anywhere else in McHenry County.

ACCESSORY BUILDINGS – PHASES 3, 4 & 5

Real Estate Developer, Jack Pease, is excited to announce revisions to his planned development, Dutch Creek Estates, Phases 3, 4 & 5 referred to as “The Wilderness” because of its natural woodlands, open space, streams and ponds, located in Johnsburg, Illinois. Revisions in the development, offer buyers the combination of a custom luxury home site and a complimenting luxury highend accessory building site.

This is a unique opportunity not offered or available in area residential developments. The luxury high-end accessory building provides owners and enthusiasts a multitude of uses such as a vehicle & toy collection showroom, RV storage, family-cave dreams, hobby & crafts, family & friends entertaining, complete with gourmet kitchens, deluxe bathrooms, game and sport uses, fireplaces, wet bars and wine cellars and many other uses.

The accessory building floor space cannot exceed 3% of the total lot area on any single lot, or a combination of lots, measuring 1.5 acres or more, allowing more open space and a less dense development environment. Accessory buildings are to be no more than 16’ to the eaves, 35’ in total height. Yard setback requirements: 50’ in the rear of the residence and 50’ Side and Rear yard. Luxury high-end custom homes and accessory buildings are subject to an architectural review committee approval ensuring high-end construction standards and a beautiful community. Please see the following photographs of exterior and interior accessory building examples.
